

SME Chapter 28

The Golden Gate Chapter

Tour Announcement

Sponsored by SME Chapter 28,
The Golden Gate Chapter

What: INTEL MUSEUM TOUR

When: Tuesday, March 21, 2006
4:00 to 5:30 pm

Where: The Intel Museum
2200 Mission College Boulevard,
Robert Noyce Building,
Santa Clara, CA

Networking: Following the tour, we will be meeting at Birks Restaurant, 3955 Freedom Circle

To Register - To register for this event Call Walt Maclay (408) 245 9844, or JoAnne Moody (925) 980 9655. Our group is limited to 25 persons max, so please register early. If you need to cancel, please do so early so we can make room for others.

About the Intel Museum:

For the past 35 years, Intel has been a leader in technology exploration and innovation worldwide. The Intel Museum showcases Intel's history and operations through unique exhibits and presentations designed to let you explore Intel® technology first hand.¹

Check out the Intel Museum online as well, <http://www.intel.com/museum/index.htm> and numerous interesting Intel manufacturing related sites.

Intel Premier Providers for Mfg

<http://www.intel.com/solutions/providers/manufacturing.htm>

High Volume Manufacturing Research:

<http://www.intel.com/solutions/providers/manufacturing.htm>

<http://www.intel.com/research/operations/intelligent.htm>

Solutions for Transforming the Manufacturing Industry:

<http://www.intel.com/business/bss/industry/manufacturing/>

Applying RFID Technology in High Volume Manufacturing:

<http://www.intel.com/it/mobility-wireless/rfid1.htm>

Optimizing Supply Chain Planning:

http://www.intel.com/technology/itj/2005/volume09issue03/art06_supplychain/p05_fabsort.htm

¹ Intel Museum Website, <http://www.intel.com/museum/index.htm>, March 11, 2006.