Dear Len:

We have made every change, deletion, and addition that you suggested (and have also officially listed Frank Fenton as a cooperator in the development of Union Job Relations).

The balance between A.F. of L. and C.I.O. was not too good, we felt, and in our search for more A.F. of L. examples it seemed that the Machinists were most promising. I am enclosing an additional page and a half. It all looks good except that last item which would not go in the report, but which makes us wonder whether we should mention the Machinists at all. It was the most recent in the series of references we found.

Can you find out for us what item is in this - or suggest what we might do? Please phone or wire, collect.

Sincerely yours,

C. R. Dooley
