State of Manufacturing

An esteemed panel of manufacturing business related experts have been assembled to provide us with a brief presentation of their role in supporting manufacturing enterprise.

The meeting will then be opened up in to a “Town Hall” type question period for the audience to ask questions of the panel. This meeting is open to the public and other concerned professional organization members. Please make your reservation to join us for dinner followed by an informative and interactive evening. Find out what is being done to support the health and growth of manufacturing in our area.

The list of panelist for the meeting are:

Rita Needham - Springfield Area Manufacturers Association

Linda Gipson - Missouri Chamber of Commerce

David Lippe - Editor of Mid-America Industry and Commerce Magazine

Karl Klumpe - City Utilities, Springfield
